

WHERE DO OUR POLITICIANS STAND ON REFUGEE ISSUES?

Interested in fairness for refugees and people seeking safety?

Here's a very useful summary of information to help you order your voting preferences.

	GREENS	LABOR	COALITION
End offshore detention	✓	✗	✗
Accept New Zealand's offer to resettle people	✓	✓	✓
Fair process with access to independent review tribunal	✓	✓	✗
Permanent protection visas for rebuilding lives	✓	✓	✗
Access to family reunion for all refugees	✓	✓	✗
End boat turn-backs	✓	✗	✗
Increase annual refugee intake to respond to need	50,000 per year – and up to 10,000 sponsored Additional one-off intake of 20,000 from Afghanistan	Progressively increase to 27,000 (+ 5000 sponsored)	Current 13,750 limit (including sponsored) No future figure available
Humane detention timeline and conditions	7 day time limit Royal Commission	Strive for 90 day limit Independent oversight	No time limit No independent oversight
Regional cooperation to provide safe and timely pathways to resettlement	Work with UNHCR to support, assess and resettle people who are stranded in transit countries	Work with UNHCR to support, assess and resettle people who are stranded in transit countries	People registering with UNHC in Indonesia are currently barred from resettlement in Australia

NB: this information is readily available on the individual parties' websites. For information on other parties or independents, it is recommended to check the refugee policies of independents and minor parties in your electorate.